Any one contemplating attending college during the spring term would do well to read and ponder the advertisement of the Beaver Dam Seminary to be found in another column. This is a college second to none in the Green river country.

This week, we announce Mr. R. F.

Ellison as a candidate for Judge of the Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Ellison is well and favorably known and has always been a faithful party worker, sober and industrious and if elected would make a good judge. We commend him to the earnest consideration of the people.

Elsewhere in this issue of The Herald will be found the announcement of Mr. R. B. May as a candidate for clerk of the Ohio County Court, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. May is well known and has always been a faithful party worker, sober and industrious and if elected would make a good clerk. We commend him to the earnest consideration of the people.

Mr. L. M. H. McHenry, who went

West to remain during the winter months on the account of his health has been the position of claim agent to adjust losses for stock killed and major claims for injury to persons on the Southern Pacific Railroad. His headquarters to be at Tucson, Arizona and he is very desirous to place and the many friends of Mr. McHenry here are glad to see him so desirably employed.

In this issue of The Herald will be found the announcement of Mr. G. B.

Likens as a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Likens is a citizen, Democrat and officer is too well and favorably known for us to need to say more than to say that we heartily recommend him to the action of the Democratic party.

James Stone, a negro, who was charged with assaulting a white woman, near Mayfield, several weeks ago, and been taken to Louisville for safe keeping, was returned to Mayfield Monday for trial. As soon as his travels were completed, he was returned and he was soon away to a lamb. A portion of the mob that hung Stone was taken to the home of Mr. Chambers, another dakker and through there were 100 shots fired from Winchester, Chambers and others soon lost out of the fire and while it was not so intended, four other dwellings were burned by the spread of the fire.

of the oldest and best known banks in Chicago with assets amounting to about $1,000,000 closed its doors last Monday and posted the following notice on the door: "This bank is in the hands of the National bank examiner by order of the comptroller of the treasury." Of the sixteen banks that closed through the National bank examiners, only one of their doors as a result of the closing of that institution. They are E. S.

Dryer & Co., and Wamsutter &

Johnson. These two institutions are located in small ways and they are not expected to be of much importance. The assets of the E. S.

Dryer & Co., are given at $1,000,000 with liabilities at $1,000,000. The assets for Wamsutter & Johnson are approximately: Assets, $500,000.
